Winnipeg, Aug. 26, 1901.

Montreal, Aug. 25.—Hon. Chas. B. Rouleau, judge of the supreme court, Calgary, died here this afternoon of heart disease. Deceased came here several weeks ago on a visit to relatives and was taken ill shortly after his arrival. He has been in a precarious state of health for the past few weeks.

Montreal, Aug. 25.—The locomotive engineers and firemen from all over the C. P. R. system arrived in the city yesterday and today to attend the conferences of their joint protective boards which will open in this city to-morrow. Members of neither organization would say whether the trackmen's strike situation would be a special subject of consideration or not, nor would they say whether there was business outside of routine matters to come before them. It is currently reported, however, that the strike situation will at least come up for discussion at the meetings of both brotherhoods. The trainmen are still holding meetings and still remain uncommunicative. They have had a conference with General Manager McNicoll in which among other matters the trackmen's strike was discussed but only very generally, and it is believed that no definite action or stand has been taken so far. Another conference will be held to-morrow with Mr. McNicoll which will probably be the final one with the management. Chas. H. King, of North Bend, R.C., president of the trackmen of the Pacific division of the Canadian Pacific, arrived in the city to-night in response to the telegram of President Wilson, to take the place of Mr. McTaggart, who has been expelled from the committee. Neither General Manager McNicoll nor President Wilson would discuss strike matters to-night.

It is learned that a deputation of railroad men, representing the different branches of railroad service, went east on Friday to consult with General Manager McNicoll regarding the sectionmen's strike. It is stated that they bear full authority from whom they represent to take whatever action they deem necessary, their instruction being to secure an immediate conclusion, in the event of which not being accomplished the same authority states that they are to make a general strike. A settlement during this week may therefore be expected.

New York, Aug. 25.—A most violent and protracted storm of rain accompanied by wind which at times in some sections approached the proportions of a hurricane, swept over New York City, West Chester County, and the northeastern portion of New Jersey this afternoon. The most damage so far reported was at Jersey city where buildings were wrecked including a church and a theatre. Rain had been falling intermittently all morning. At about 10 p. m. the low hanging clouds began to discharge torrents of water and this kept up until 2 o'clock. About three o'clock the wind increased in violence and at 3:30 Jersey City began to have the worst storm experienced in its history. Blasts of wind carried wild spread destruction. Two wind storms seemingly met in the neighborhood of New York Avenue and Barrow street. A cyclone condition resulted. Houses standing in Newark avenue and the wagons to which they were hitched were blown over. Telegraph poles and wires fell. A moment or two later the temple of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church fell crashing through the roof and down upon the pews.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 25.—Talk of peace in the steel works continues, in spite of the details that there is no prospect of any by either the officials of the United States Steel corporation or the Amalgamated Association. President Shaffer made the statement to-night that there was nothing in this line so far as he knew. There is a strong prevalent belief that there are powerful influences at work to bring the warring interests together with the idea of ending the disastrous warfare that is unsettling the industrial prosperity of the country.

Sir Frederick Robinson, Toronto, was drowned in Muskoka lake. Wm. Woods had his leg crushed by cars at Schreiber. Cavalier again defeated the all Winnipeg basketball team. Chas. Hynd, M. P. for South Dunt, is visiting Winnipeg. Mrs. Joan Laird died at the age of 107 years at Seaford, Ont. It is reported Governor Ross will retire from the commission.

A large shipbuilding firm of Newcastle, England, may construct a yard in Canada. Heavy rains in Pennsylvania have caused the worst floods in the history of the state. A Frenchman was killed while working in the coal docks near Jackfish, Lake Superior.

Forest fires are doing much damage along the Crow's Nest Pass line.

Manoli Poli attempted to hang himself in jail at Portage la Prairie.

John Barry, 12 years of age, was drowned in Toronto while bathing.

A young child of O. Simonson, Winnipeg, was drowned in a tub of water.

Henry Niles was cremated at the stake by a mob at Winchester, Tenn.

William Rickett was killed at Belleville by a load of slabs falling upon him.

Sneak thieves at Rochester, N. Y., stole a bank messenger's bag and contents.

The Archbishop of Canterbury celebrates to-day his silver wedding anniversary.

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—Chas. W. Deegan, who lives on Main street, Hull, committed suicide to-day. He shot himself in the breast. Death was instantaneous. He was in the rear of his residence when he fired the fatal shot. His wife was the first to arrive after hearing the shot. Deegan was at one time registrar of the county.

THE WAR.

London, Aug. 26.—South African despatches show that the Boers continue active in Cape Colony. Sharp skirmishing has occurred near Union Lake, only a day's ride from the sea, while Commandant Scheepers's commandos are at the important town of Outshain, 30 miles from the Indian ocean. In Brussels it is asserted that Commandant General Botha has ordered the Boer commanders in future to retain all captured British as hostages in case Lord Kitchener carried out the threat of his last proclamation.

He has considerable property in the Vermilion district but his heaviest investments are in the lumbering industry in connection with which he holds licenses for eight timber berths in the district. Before returning Mr. Dwinell purchased from Donald Rose a $2,000 site for a saw mill on the bank at the southern end of the bridge. The site comprises ten and a half acres and extends from the bridge to Mill Creek with a frontage on the river. It is Mr. Dwinell's intention to erect a large saw mill at some time in the near future.

—The wood buffalo of the north country, the sole remaining remnants of the buffalo family not in captivity, are becoming rapidly extinct according to a well known northern trader now in Edmonton. The hunters of the wood buffalo live two days travel from Fort Smith a number of years past the wood buffalo have been protected by legislation prohibiting them being taken or killed. On the 1st of January, 1902, this protection expires. Notwithstanding this attempt by the government to prevent the extinction of the animals, the trader referred to was of the opinion that they would be extinct in a few years anyway. "There is not an animal in the herds," he said, "that is under three years of age. The reason of this is that the wolves follow the bands day and night and kill the calves. I have been told this by all the Indians who came in from the buffalo country. There are only some three hundred buffalo left now and their range is in a country of about 200 miles in extent." Asked for a suggestion as to how their complete extinction might be prevented he said that the only thing in reason he could suggest would be the offering of a large bounty for the wolves.

On the same day Mrs. Beaudreau has lost her father, Mr. Renault, of St. Albert, and her baby boy. Mr. Renault was a victim of heart disease and his death took place on Wednesday morning at 10:20 o'clock. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day his three-month-old grandchild died in Strathcona."

—R. Logan, of Beaver lake, was in town last week. The roads are now good from Fort Saskatchewan to the lake. Crops are well advanced. Mr. Logan expected that his wheat cutting would begin on Thursday last. The crop was good. Half a truck part of the settlement at the southern end of the lake in July and did some damage, but the grain has now all recovered as to promise half a crop.

—Waseana Tatarczuk, a Galician lady of Beaver lake, besetting tired of life on the farm, where the willows are hard to grub and the thatched roof leaked, left her husband and turned her face to the outer world in search of a place where living was easy and labor light. Her husband was all Mrs. Tatarczuk left, the worldly goods of the family represented by some $500 she took with her, also a couple of small Tatarczuks. The woman reached town on Friday and was at the station when government interpreter Mohr interrogated her as to where she was going. "New York," she said, but Mohr, who knew of the $500 feature and the unsuspecting husband, fearing potatoes at Beaver lake, thought otherwise. With the aid of the police he persuaded her to postpone her excursion and she is now in town with the watchful eye of the law upon her while a messenger takes to the unthinking husband the news that is likely to jar the domestic felicity of the Tatarczuk country seat.

THE RAILWAY

Work is progressing rapidly on the railway extension from Strathcona to Edmonton. Last week there were 130 men and 25 teams employed on the south side. It is expected that grading will be commenced on the north side this week. The station grounds have been laid out and the location of the station fixed. The station will be on the east side of Second street, on the flat, immediately at the foot of the hill. The tracks will be south of the station, so that the road from town will not cross the track in reaching the station. A new grade will have to be made down First street from the bench on which D. Ross' dwelling is situated, to the flat, and thence along the base of the hill north of the track to Second street. It would be a convenience if it were continued on to meet Hardisty avenue. There will be two sidings parallel with the main track on its south side. The inner one will be the through siding and the outer—12 feet from the main track—the siding upon which sites will be provided for elevators. North of the track adjoining the proposed main road to the station will be two spur sidings for unloading of car lots by teams. The through traffic and elevator sidings give 1,200 feet of room, and extend diagonally from First street to Third street, extending across both. Next season the Dowling mill will have a switch from the station grounds along Hardisty avenue, on which the mill is situated. Situated on the flat at the station is a switch which can be extended in any direction at a minimum expense, as required by the erection of warehouses or industrial enterprises of any sort. A temporary "Y" will probably be put in south of the station.

From the north end of the bridge to the commencement of the sidings is 1,220 feet, and in that distance is a rise of 16 feet. The siding area, of course on a level. Beyond the track begins to gradually climb the hill at one and a quarter per cent grade, passing to the north of W. Easton's house. It has been located to the gravel pit south of the H. B. Port. It is expected that gravel will be taken from there for the work required on the extension. Beyond the gravel pit the line has not been run, but it is expected that it will rise to the level some place about Mr. Grant's house at the west end of town, or a little beyond. The track crosses the main trail to the bridge about half way between the bridge and the station. This crossing and side track crosses at First, Second and Third streets on the flat will be level.

On the south side the track leaves the C. & E. line a mile south of the station, and runs due east a mile to the bank of the Little Mill Creek. This part of the road is easy of construction, being on the level upland and has very little grade. Work will be completed on this section this week, ready for the ties and rails.

At the bank of the Little Mill Creek the descent to the bridge and consequently the heavy work commences. The direction, when leaving the C. & E. has been due east, is now northwesterly to the bridge, following first the course of the Little Mill Creek for a short distance and then the Big Mill Creek. The first mile after entering the valley of the creek is the heaviest work, and best shows the intention of the company in regard to the extension. In following the windings of the creek valley they have spared no expense to secure the easiest grade and the least excavation. The work is consequently far heavier than an ordinary observer would have supposed necessary, or than would have been necessary had the company not intended this piece of road to form a part of their through line.

On entering the Little Mill Creek valley on its west bank the first work is the diversion of the creek to keep it away from the west bank, where a fill of 21 feet in height has been put in. Immediately following the fill is a cut through a point 450 feet long by 14 feet deep. This brings the road to the crossing of the Little Mill Creek by a bridge 30 feet high and 135 feet long. Next is a cut through the point between the two tracks, 16 feet deep and 150 feet long. The bridge across the Big Mill Creek to its east side is 38 feet high and 220 feet long. The bridges have not been put in but the grade is completed to this crossing. Beyond the Big Mill Creek is a cut 500 feet long and 21 feet deep. The road allowance from Strathcona eastward is then crossed with two small cuts and the creek is crossed to its west side by a bridge 151 feet long and 47 feet high. Then follows a cut 200 feet long and 26 feet deep. Then a fill 500 feet long and 16 feet high. Then a cut 500 feet long and 16 feet deep. This brings the track to the road allowance just north of Brackman-Ker's hog ranch in the creek valley. Next comes a cut 300 feet long and 21 feet deep, a mile and a quarter from the bridge across the Saskatchewan. Next is a diversion of the creek and a cut 40 feet deep on one side to pass a cut bank. J. W. York's slaughter house is a cut 350 feet long and 20 feet deep. Next a fill 21 feet high and 45 feet long. Then follows a short stretch of side hill work. Then a fill 16 feet high and 250 feet long, then a cut 400 feet long and 23 feet deep through the point upon which the road to Strathcona makes its first considerable rise. The cut will be immediately east of the road. Then comes a fill 15 feet high and 250 feet long. This is the last heavy work before reaching the bridge.

The maximum grade is one per cent, and although there is considerable curvature it has been kept within the limits allowed on railways of the first class. It is in keeping down the curvature that the great expense has been entailed.

The contractor M. McCrimmon, of Calgary, is a railway contractor of long experience. He had contracts on the Calgary & Edmonton when it was being constructed. Since then he has had contracts on the Crow's Nest railway, and on several C. P. R. branches in Manitoba, his last work being on the Selkirk branch. He also constructed the greater part of the Calgary irrigation ditch.

It is expected that the grading will be completed in the latter part of October. This is somewhat later than was at first expected, but the very wet weather of July delayed the work seriously. However, there is no doubt that it will be completed in ample time to aid in moving this season's crop.

DEVELOPMENT IN THE YUKON.

Late newspapers from Dawson show that the Yukon council, at a meeting early in July, passed the budget for the year ending June 30, 1902. The appropriations amount to $470,800 and in addition the sum of $137,000 was voted for certain expenses of the Territorial government for the year which has just elapsed. It is of interest to note the objects for which money has been appropriated. Of the latter sum nearly $400,000, or $65,900, was for roads, bridges and public works, while $25,000 more was for the territorial medical board of health, and $14,800 for schools. In the appropriations for the current year's roads, bridges and public works account for $100,000; the fire department is voted $85,000; the maintenance, cleaning and lighting of streets, $80,000; schools, $71,200; and hospitals and charity, $38,000. It will be seen that one-third of the expenditure will be for public works, mainly of a nature to improve the means of communication, and that nearly a quarter will be for education and relief, while nearly a third goes for municipal services of a description which are keenly needed. Steps have been taken to incorporate Dawson, giving it a simple form of town government, and a variety of other ordinances have been considered, including one dealing with the question of miners' liens. A forecast of the road-building operations of the year has been made public by Commissioner Dawson, and the work will be pushed with vigor, as it makes the most of the advantage of the summer weather.

BOUNDARY ORE SHIPMENTS.

During the first six months of the current year the tonnage of the Boundary district was 176,759 tons. Boundary shipments have since increased to an aggregate of 218,478 tons for this year, to 7th inst. Rossland's shipment for the whole of the year 1900 totalled 221,137 tons, whilst for six months of 1901 they were 206,857 tons, the latter quantity showing a large and creditable increase. The tonnage of the Boundary district last year was 97,781 tons, and for six months of this year 176,759 tons, this exhibiting a still more creditable increase. Adding July's tonnage, which brought the total for seven months up to 209,709 tons, this year's output has already exceeded last year's by 111,988 tons, and arrangements are now being forwarded which, should nothing interfere with the confidently anticipated progress, will in all reasonable probability swell Boundary's aggregate tonnage for 1901 to proportions that will make this year's productions about fourfold that of last year. And since this forecast leaves out of the calculation all prospective shipments from the Brooklyn group, Snowshoe, Golden Crown, Winnipeg, Sunset, Harrison and general other properties that may be expected to contribute to the total output, it is quite evident that a much higher total might with good reason be named and still be well within the bounds of conservative probability.

The tonnage of ore shipped by Boundary district mines during August, to 7th inst., inclusive, so far as has been ascertained from the mines, is as under:

	Tons.
Old Ironsides & Knob Hill group	5,331
Mother Lode	2,968
B. C.	760
R. Bell	90
No. 7.	0
Total	8,709

The total quantity shipped to above mentioned date is 216,259 tons.

C. P. R. BUSINESS.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—At the meeting of the directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to-day the usual dividend of 2 per cent on the preference stock for the half year ended June 30th last was declared. A dividend of 2-1/4 per cent for the same period was also declared on the common stock. The results for the fiscal year to June 30th last were: Gross earnings, $30,855,203; working expenses, $18,745,828; net earnings, $12,109,375; income from other sources, $933,425; total net income, $13,042,800; less fixed charges, including interest on land bonds, $7,395,835; less amount applied against amortization of bonds, $150,000; net revenue available for dividends, $5,586,965. After payment of all dividends declared the surplus for the year carried forward is $1,114,458.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Fortage Liberal reports that what is called the "Liberal" grain is good but does not yield in proportion to the straw. There is a little damage by rust.

Kingston, Aug. 15.—At a convention of the conservatives of Addition to-day at Harrowsmith, Melzar Avery, lumberman, of Sharnbrook lake, was given the nomination on the first ballot. Hon. Geo. Foster's name was mentioned, but was not pressed to ballot.

Battleford Herald, Aug. 16: The seasonable weather of the past week has wrought wonders in both grain and hay fields, and next week will see both having and harvesting general throughout the district. Hands are scarce.

Battleford Herald: Prince Rupert have received the plans and specifications for their new mill. They call for increasing the height and adding considerably to the area covered by the present building. The machinery has been already shipped.

The Winnipeg Commercial of August 17th: "Another factor which would be well for the business community to figure on now and thus avoid disappointment later on is the strong probability that the Canadian Northern road will not be open to Lake Superior before the close of navigation this year, which means that the movement of grain eastward will be confined to the Canadian Pacific railway lines. This will be a disappointment if it proves to be the case but it will be better to face the disappointment early."

Pineau Creek Echo: The outlook for crops in this district is a very good one. Fine weather, subsequent to a wet spring, has brought the hay and grain crops along in great shape, and the harvesting of the latter is being busily proceeded with. Oats will be an especially good crop this fall. The straw is long and the heads full and heavy, a better crop has never been seen in the district. Fall wheat looks well, some farmers having crops that promise immense yields. In fact, a very large amount of fall wheat will be sent out of the country this year. Spring wheat is a little slow, but is making good headway this fine weather, and although not at all well suited to the climate as the fall grain, still it would seem that good results will be obtained from it this year.

HALF-BREED CLAIMS

J. A. J. McKenna, half-breed scrip commissioner, has made the following report to the minister of interior on the subject of reserved claims:

Sir—In accordance with the letters patent issued to me under the order of His Excellency in council of the 16th March last, I have dealt with the 856 reserved claims referred to in the report of the 11th of that month of the commissioners who investigated half-breed claims in Assiniboia and Alberta. I have disallowed 388 of the claims; the others have been held for further evidence and consideration. Of the 388 claims disallowed, 248 were for money scrip and amounted to $59,520.00, and 140 were for land scrip and covered 38,600 acres.

Thirty reserved claims have been sent to me by Messrs. Cote and Macdonald, the commissioners who dealt with half-breed claims in the district of Saskatchewan. Of these I have allowed three on the recommendation of the commissioners. I have disallowed the others and have held the others for further evidence and consideration. The desire of the half-breeds as to the kind of scrip applied for has not been indicated in all of these cases. The remainder of the Saskatchewan reserved claims are to be forwarded to me later on.

The usual grounds upon which half-breed claims are disallowed are: Death before the transfer of the country from the Hudson's Bay Company; Birth outside of the Territories; Death while in receipt of Indian annuity; and non-residence in the Territories on the 15th July, 1870.

In addition to these grounds, I have disallowed on the following:

1. As the claims of the half-breeds of the Territories were recognized for their extinguishment, I have taken it that residence in the country up to that date was necessary to admission of a claim, for the reason that those who had left and taken up residence in other parts could properly be considered as having thereby surrendered or allowed to lapse any territorial rights which they might have possessed in the country.

2. It has been the custom to recognize half-breed rights coming from the mother as well as the father, and consequently claims have been allowed of children who were the offspring of mothers of part Indian blood, married to husbands of exclusively white blood. I have taken the position that the benefits of the custom should not be extended to foreigners, and that the children of a foreigner by a half-breed woman who had received scrip and thereby had her aboriginal right extinguished should be regarded as taking the status of their father, and therefore not possessed of any aboriginal rights which the government of Canada is called upon to extinguish.

3. After the issue of the commission for the settlement of half-breed claims in 1885, a great number of Indians who were of mixed blood were allowed to leave treaty and take scrip; a number of them have since been taken back into treaty. Certain of those who have gone back into treaty have claimed scrip on account of children who were born and died while they held the status of half-breeds. It takes it that by coming back into treaty the half-breed not only changed his own status, but surrendered any claim he might have, even as heir of a half-breed to compensation on account of the territorial rights of such half-breeds.

The discharges from treaty in 1885 and subsequent years have given rise to another question. It had been the practice to grant half-breed scrip for children who died before the making of the Indian treaty, into which the said half-breeds had entered, and only to disallow claims on account of those who actually died in receipt of annuity. I have taken the position that all those who entered into treaty with the government extinguished for the consideration they were granted under the treaty, all territorial rights which existed in them at the time and that consequently no claim could be for children who died before the date of entry into the treaty.

4. It is provided in the Indian act that an Indian woman marrying a non-Indian, is entitled to commutation of her annuity. It has been the practice to pay, in addition to her annuity scrip as a half-breed, if she were proved to be of mixed blood. I have taken it that commutation of annuity is a final and complete settlement.

5. It has been the custom to recognize proof of part white blood as a discharge from Indian treaty, as constituting a right to scrip. I have taken it that everyone, irrespective of the proportion of Indian blood which he may have, who enters treaty becomes an Indian in the eye of the law and should, therefore, be treated as an Indian both by the department of the interior and the department of Indian affairs; and that when he is discharged from treaty he becomes an ordinary citizen of the country, having no claims as an aborigine, all such claims having been extinguished by his accepting the benefits of an Indian treaty up to the date at which he voluntarily surrendered them.

6. Inasmuch as those persons of mixed blood in Canada who participate in the benefits of band life on Indian reserves are excluded from receiving scrip, I have taken the position that half-breeds who have left Canada and taken up their residence on Indian reservations in the United States and participate in the benefits of Indian life thereon, should as well as all half-breed children admitted to United States Indian schools, be likewise excluded.

The order of His Excellency in council of the 13th Mar. 1900, provided for the delivery of scrip powers of attorney or assignments, upon the commission being satisfied that the agreement under which the assignment was made, or the power of attorney given, did not operate to the disadvantage of the half-breed and had been duly fulfilled, and that in any case in which no agreement had been made the half-breed who executed the assignment or made the power of attorney received the current price being paid for scrip. As land scrip is non-transferable this provision only applied to money scrip; but the point was taken at Edmonton that notwithstanding the printing of the words "Not transferable" on the land scrip certificate, such land scrip was assignable and that under the order in council land scrip could be delivered to an attorney or assignee.

In order to remove doubt and dispose of the question which was raised, I would suggest the desirability of making it clear that it is only in the case of money scrip that powers of attorney or assignments are to be accepted or acted upon; and that in cases in which a half-breed asks for land scrip, the commissioner has no authority to accept or act upon any assignment or power of attorney.

TOO MANY HARVESTERS

Brandon, Aug. 16.—Harvest excursionists who have failed to secure work made a demonstration here tonight. The meeting was held in the station when a number of excursionists made speeches. They claimed that they had been lured to this country by promises of big pay and lots of work, and when they arrived here they found neither. This was the thread of the story told by each. About 25 men were then lined up by a young man named Mitchell a returned soldier, and marched through the streets to the residences of Mayor Fisher. He was at the city hall and there the excursionists met him and demanded food. He gave them an order for meats. There are several hundred excursionists in town and apparently very little demand for men. Many of these young fellows have no money and they have been sleeping under trees and in the station house. As far as can be learned there is a scarcity of men at points, such as Rapid City and Soria and smaller places, but too many seem to have gotten off here. The men state freely that they intend taking possession of the passenger coaches and compelling the C. P. R. to take them back home.

STRATHCONA.

Plainsdealer, Aug. 23.
The solemn realities of Strathcona's pound-by-law last night, left, on Tuesday three heads of cattle unclaimed, though duly advertised, were sold to the highest bidder for cash.

Strathcona schools opened this week with an attendance of 275. The enrolment for August of last year was 249.

Mrs. H. B. McCully and daughter, of Lacombe's, arrived last night on a visit to friends in Edmonton and Strathcona.

What harvest began on the reserve south of Strathcona on Saturday last but will not be general throughout the district before next week.

At the meeting of the directors of the South Edmonton agricultural society held on Saturday afternoon last it was decided to hold the fair on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 10th and 11th. EDMONTON BULLETIN, AUGUST 26, 1901.

ALBERTA OATS.

From all parts of Alberta come reports of an immense crop of oats. Manitoba also reports a big crop running up to thirty million bushels. Just where all these oats are to find a market is what is worrying the farmers and business men of Edmonton. The market for oats differs altogether from that for wheat. Wheat is of universal demand, and whatever the surplus in any quarter of the globe it can reach a market. Not so with oats. The market for oats is restricted and local. The price will not bear cost of long haul as with that of wheat. In Alberta—in the Edmonton district less than in any other part—oats are the important grain crop. And even in this district, occupying two-thirds of the grain acreage, the price of oats is a matter of absorbing interest to both farmers and merchants. Up to last year the Kootenay country has taken the surplus of Alberta oats. In that year there appeared a danger that production in Alberta had outrun demand in Kootenay. But the failure of the oat crop in Manitoba, not only relieved Alberta from a measure of competition in the Kootenay, but furnished an even better market in Manitoba itself. Consequently the bulk of last year's crop in Alberta was disposed of at high prices. But not all of it. There is still in the hands of farmers and dealers here a considerable quantity of last year's oats. If that is the case after the comparatively short crop, break demand and high prices of last season, the outlook for the present season of tremendous crops throughout Manitoba and the Territories is anything but bright, unless a change in conditions is brought about.

The only change in conditions that is at once practicable and certain to give at least a measure of relief is a reduction in the freight rates from Alberta to the Kootenay and the coast. A reduction in the rates eastward would be of no use, for such markets as there are in the east both in Manitoba and Ontario are supplied locally. The only possible market is in the west. To all appearances it is necessary to secure the whole of that market for the oat product of Alberta if an adequate market is to be found for our surplus. This can only be done by a substantial reduction in freight rates sufficient to shut out United States competition.

But it is doubtful even with United States oats altogether shut out from British Columbia if a market exists there for this year's joint surplus of Alberta and Manitoba. We must look further for a market. Such a market is offered by the war in South Africa. The immense number of horses used by the British army there are fed on imported provender. The amount of oats used must be enormous. From Vancouver to Cape Town or Durban is a long voyage, but it is deep sea navigation and there are plenty of steamers on the ocean. The long ocean voyage is not so much of an impediment as the railway haul from here to the coast. If the railway rate for oats for export were cut to such figures as are allowed other commodities from other districts to other ports, there is no doubt that as long as the war in Africa lasts there would be an ample market for all the oats Alberta could raise.

Col. Williams after a sharp fight on August 10th, captured in the vicinity of Klerksdorp, Transvaal, an entire Boer convoy of 86 wagons loaded with ammunition and supplies, much stock and eighteen prisoners, including the landrover of Bloemhoff, and Dutoit, a telegrapher, with a complete wire tapping apparatus.

Melfort, the most easterly settlement in the Prince Albert district, has 100,000 bushels of grain in sight and no threshing outfit. The C. N. R. will be within hauling distance of Melfort this fall.

THE HARVESTERS.

The C. P. R. publish the following statement regarding the harvesters on August 21st:

We know from our reports that of the 17,000 harvesters who came to this country from eastern Canada points, not more than 200 are now unemployed, and they will be placed within a few days. There was considerable trouble in placing the men but the delay in securing them work was apparently unavoidable. We announced that there would be work for all who arrived, and our statement is borne out by the advice we received to-day. If any of the harvesters are unemployed at the end of the week, it will be their own fault. There is work for all at good wages. Only a few of the harvesters have returned to the east.

THRESHING AT AGRICOLA.

Messrs. Pearce, Ottewill & Toane's thresher threshed the barley crop of Messrs. Hanlon and J. Toane, of Agricola, on Wednesday last. The grain turned out well in both yield and quality.

GOLD FROM EDMONTON.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 22.—Gold shipments for assay are being received at the government assay office opened here, from all quarters to-day. A large shipment was received through the Imperial Bank of Canada from Edmonton. The Cariboo, Kootenay, Altin and Yukon gold fields have also sent gold for assay at this office.

HORSE HILLS.

Considerable excitement exists just now in this favored section. A gentleman lately arrived from England, and who owns several sections of land here, is trying to buy up more. A surveyor has been out running lines planting stakes etc. All are watching and all sorts of rumors are in the air, some of the knowing ones declaring that Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton are going to be side tracked and that the great metropolis of the west will undoubtedly be located on the Horse Hills range. Some have sold out already, while others are shy to bite, afraid they will ask to little for their land, and intend hanging on with bull dog tenacity to their farms. Between big crops and the boom now the farmer's hopes never were brighter. Undoubtedly this is the golden era. Sky pilots and others are declaring that the millennium is close at hand, and are watching now for the signs. People who have river claims and who were supposed to be good church members can be seen occasionally on a Sabbath morning climbing over brush and windfalls looking up bridge sites and railway crossings.

Aug. 24th, '01.

HARVEST.

Binders were being rushed out rapidly all last week, and cutting will be general this week in nearly all settlements.

Moreville is reported to be a little later and cutting will not be general there for another week. The cloudy weather of Thursday and Friday last delayed ripening somewhat.

SOUTH AFRICAN PENSIONERS.

A board of medical officers will assemble at the barracks, Regina, at 10 a. m. on 27th inst., to report upon cases of applicants for pensions or compassionate allowances in consequence of their services in South Africa, and with regard to whom proceedings of medical boards have not already been submitted for consideration by the commissioners of the Chelsea hospital. Such claimants should address their applications to the officer commanding N. W. M. P. Regina, and present themselves before the board on the date above mentioned. All applicants who present themselves before the board must do so at their own expense.

THE CANADA PERMANENT.

As intimated in these columns a few weeks ago would be the case, the Canada Permanent & Western Canada Mortgage Corporation have already established themselves in Edmonton by opening a branch office in the Imperial Bank block and Mr. C. Wilnot Strathby, formerly treasurer of the Winnipeg office, has been appointed manager and is now here in charge.

This corporation was formed by the amalgamation of the four leading loan companies in Canada, namely, the Canada Permanent Loan & Savings Company, the Western Canada Loan & Savings Company, the Freehold Loan & Savings Company and the London & Ontario Investment Company, and its assets aggregate the large sum of $23,000,000.

The corporation now has five branches in Canada, the last to be established being the one in Edmonton. This is a sign of the confidence in this western country held by the executive committee of this giant corporation.

The advent of this company, which is the largest of its kind in the world will be of great advantage to the district. Its chief executive officers are: George Goodham, Esq., president; J. Herbert Mason, Esq., first vice-president and chairman of the executive committee; W. H. Beatty, Esq., second vice-president and Walter L. Lee, Esq., general manager. These names in themselves are guarantees that fair and honorable treatment will be accorded the clients of the corporation and we predict a successful business in this growing district.

DUCK SHOOTING DAY.

Twenty-five thousand is the estimate made by the hardware men here of the number of cartridges they sold for the opening of the duck shooting season. Friday, the first day of shooting, was a civic holiday here and every man who had a gun or dog or could borrow from his friends was out assisting to make the miserable for the frightened birds. The fusillade started at 5 o'clock in the morning and continued until the night light was over and darkness fell. The town was deserted and a worse than Sunday silence pervaded the streets. The banks and the post office were the only business places which, by virtue of necessity, kept open. One of the bankers stated that his customers throughout the day numbered ten, while the post office had six callers and took in thirty cents. At the Alberta great difficulty was experienced in getting a quorum for the usual afternoon polo party.

The weather was perfect. The old rhyme says: "An easterly wind and a cloudy sky proclaimeth a hunting morning," and both east wind and cloudy sky were furnished by a thoughtful and beneficent weather bureau. To the north, south, east and west the hunting parties scattered. Ducks were numerous and shooting very good. Many were shooting with, in two or three miles of town and for that short distance out the shooting was exceptionally good, the although being numerous owing to the wet season. Some good bags were made especially by those who went out to the well known duck haunts some distance away, and took a complete equipment of waders, dogs, boots, etc. Among the parties who were out were:

Messrs. Matz, Omands, A. Brown, E. Looby and Dr. McInnis, went to Stony Plain.

Messrs. Jellett, Emery, Fisher and Kinna'd were at St. Albert.

At Crescent Island, Cooking lake, T. A. Stephen, W. F. Riddler and J. C. C. Bremner are in camp.

Geo. Gouin and Lennie Goodridge are at Egg lake, north.

A. McNeil and party went north through the lakes between town and the Sturgeon.

Messrs. F. S. Taylor, Downing and Macdonald were at Two lakes.

Dr. Acres and A. Norquay went north.

James A. Storey, T. G. Lauder and P. Alloway and R. G. Rioux, went out to Stony Plain.

A. Taylor, E. Raymer and K. A. McLeod went out to Cooking lake.

T. Grindley, of Ross Bros., and Rupert Watson, of the Dominion Cartridge Co., drove out through the near-by country.

J. Looby and G. P. Sanderson hunted some of the adjacent lakes with good success.

Chas. Jardine and E. Ranton were at the larger lakes within a few miles of town.

WETASKIWIN.

Times, Aug. 23:

Arch. Speers, who has been in poor health for some time, died this Thursday morning in his 71st year. The funeral will leave the house on Friday morning at 7:45 sharp, and proceed to the Methodist church, where a service will be conducted. The remains will then be taken to the depot and conveyed to Griswold, Man., for interment.

Geo. Batho, who has been in the district this week in the interest of the Nor-West Farmer, has brought in a most luxurious specimen of the Canada thistle from a patch growing about a quarter of a mile down the railway track. The patch from which the plant was taken is a very thick one, and has matured enough seed this year to distribute itself well over a great many acres.

The Catholic people of town received their permission from the government last week to institute a separate school in town. The first annual meeting will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 3rd, for the purpose of organization and for the transaction of preliminary business.

The village debutantes have been successfully disposed of, and the $1,000 for fire protection is now in the Merchants Bank.

The remains of the unknown man who is supposed to have been murdered near Battle Lake last spring were exhumed on Monday and reinterred in the Wetaskiwin cemetery, Rev. A. R. Robinson officiated.

The bridges to be built by the N. W. T. government at Ponoka, Goulds Crossing, Pipestone and Stony Creek are not to be built by contract, but by the government bridge gang.

The contractors have completed the construction of the cold storage compartments in the butcher shop of the new Hull block. The refrigerator installed is of the cylinder dry air system, similar to that in use in the government crematories and one of the most efficient cheap cold storage systems yet invented.

On Saturday with Mr. Holson, local manager for the company, Mr. McDonald visited the company's two dredges, the Otter and Minnie.

—For assault on a boy named Ingraham, Wm. Sketch was summoned to appear before police magistrate Cowan this morning. He pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs.

—Francis Xavier Bellisle came up this afternoon before Insp. Belcher on the charge of being implicated with his brother Gideon Bellisle, in the recent shop lifting cases.

CROP REPORT.

In response to suggestions made by some of the prominent farmers of the district the Edmonton board of trade is taking steps to secure a reliable report of the oat crop of the district with a view to approaching the C. P. R. for a reduction in the west bound rates. Circulars are being prepared to be addressed to the trustee boards of the several school districts in the country asking for a report of the crop in the school district. In this way it is hoped to secure a report sufficiently full and accurate to form the basis of an effective argument for reduced rates with the C.P.R. Co., looking also to the opening of an export trade to South Africa during the continuance of the war.
